Dear Ms. O'Brien:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for release of information from the files of the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC) for any and all FOIA requests and communications by or between Thomson Reuters Corporation (including their employees), Reuters Group (including their employees), the Washington Post (including their national Enterprise editor and independent author David Finkel or other WP employees), and the U.S. Army to include emails, letters, memos, meeting minutes, meeting notes, transcripts, presentations, audio video, images, final or draft working documents, papers, reports, forms as well as FOIA processing notes that concern the July 12, 2007 aerial weapons team Baghdad air strike in the district of new Baghdad in Baghdad abd/or a video of the incident entitled "12 JUL07 CZ ENGAGEMENT ZONE 30 GC anyone.avi (aka Collateral Murder) between July 12, 2007 and the present. Your request was received on March 14, 2013.

A search of the Army criminal file indexes utilizing the information you provided revealed no files responsive to your request. You are advised that records at this center are Criminal Investigative and Military Police Reports and are indexed by personal identifiers such as names, social security numbers, dates and places of birth and other pertinent data to enable the positive identification of individuals. This can be considered a "no record" response for USACIDC records pursuant to the Privacy Act, Title 5, USC, Section 552a and the Freedom of Information Act, Title 5, USC, Section 552. You have appeal rights concerning this action.

This no records response can be deemed by you to be a denial under the FOIA by the Initial Denial Authority, the Commanding General, U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC). If you wish to appeal this decision, please do so within sixty (60) days of the date of this letter. Please submit your appeal addressed to this office:
